30	31	It is not compulsory to take relief in GUR unless specified by the Match Committee. A compulsory drop is usually necessary for new groundwork, or any part of the course that needs repair and has been temporarily marked as GUR. HOW TO PLAY GUR When dropping from ground under repair, you must take the nearest point of relief (stance) and one club length. Make sure you drop the ball no closer to the hole. The ball must be dropped from knee-height. If you are still standing in the ground under repair after you dropped, you must drop again. Your ball is in play after you have dropped and there is no interference from the ground under repair.

If player 1 has the best score of the team, the gross score is marked in the box. If player 2 has the best score, the gross score is marked in the box along with a mark in the column on the right called P2. This allows 1Golf to attribute the score to the correct person. If both players have the same score, the score used is from the player who holed out first. If the player putting out 2nd in the order cannot beat the score of player who putted out first, they should pick up and move to the next hole. A player will be handicapped if their team score is 42 points or more, and the individual is at least on the card 9 times, and the extended individual score converts to 36 points or better. Missing holes equals 1 ½ points, except where their partners score on the card is 1 point, they then receive 1 point for calculation purposes.

Your pace of play is likely to affect how long it will take other players to play their rounds, including those in your group and those in following groups. You are encouraged to allow faster groups to play through.
You should play at a prompt pace throughout the round, including the time taken to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prepare for and make each stroke, • Move from one place to another between strokes, and • Move to the next teeing area after completing a hole. 			“Ready Golf” means to play when you are ready - you don't have to wait until the farthest away player has played. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When the player farther away has a difficult shot and is assessing options • When a longer hitter has to wait for a putting green to clear • On the tee, if the player who is to play is delayed • By playing your shot before helping to look for a lost ball • Where possible, advise the other players that you are going to play first. • In stroke play, play “ready golf” in a safe and responsible way. In match play, you and your opponent may agree that one of you will play out of turn to save time.

You must, however, announce that you're playing a provisional, or the next shot you hit will be considered in play as if you took a stroke-and-distance penalty. You cannot play a provisional ball when you believe a ball is lost INSIDE a penalty area. This is because if the ball is in the penalty area, you have multiple relief options to choose from. If you've hit a provisional, you've gotten to preview one of those options (re-hitting from the previous spot), which might shade what relief option you take.

When is a ball embedded?

The ball must be in your own pitch mark as a result of the previous stroke. That means that if your ball is plugged in the ground because somebody stepped on it or ran over it with a cart, the ball is not embedded. The ball also must be at least partially below the surface of the ground. So if the ball is just in really deep grass but resting on the surface, it's not embedded under the Rules.

Ball is embedded
Part of the ball (embedded in its own pitch-mark) is below the level of the ground.
← Level of Ground

Despite the fact that the ball is not touching the soil, part of the ball (embedded in its own pitch-mark) is below the level of the ground.

Ball is NOT embedded
Even though the ball is sitting down in the grass, relief is not available because no part of the ball is below the level of the ground.

31 PROSERPINE OPEN – MEN'S	Some quick tips to lower your score: Take your medicine – If you've hit a bad shot into the trees, get your ball back in play. Try chipping to a distance you're comfortable with instead of going for the green. Uphill putt – An uphill putt is always preferable over downhill. If you can start leaving your ball under the hole, the putts will be easier, and hopefully those 3 putts will be a bad memory! Let it go – There is a saying in golf – "The most important shot is the next one!" If you've hit a bad shot, suck it up and move on. Pre-shot routine – There are not many things you can control in golf, however your pre-shot routine is one of the things you can. Your score is the result of a series of individual shots, so concentrate on each shot.

WHAT IS A PENALTY AREA?

A penalty area is: Any body of water on the course (whether or not marked by the Committee), including a sea, lake, pond, river, ditch, surface drainage ditch or other open watercourse (even if not containing water), and Any other part of the course the Committee defines as a penalty area.

If stakes defining a body of water as a penalty area are improperly located, a player is not allowed to take advantage of such an error by the Committee. For example, a ball is found in an expanse of water that, because of the configuration of the ground, is clearly part of the penalty area but is outside the stakes and, thus, technically outside the penalty area. The player may not claim that the ball at rest in the water is in temporary water since a penalty area includes any body of water on the course.
